PHONE 416.864.7621

Vickie has extensive experience in acting for both lenders and borrowers in a variety of debt financing arrangements including asset-based loans, bilateral and syndicated financings, franchise financing, first and second lien loans, and project and acquisition financings.

Vickie has also assisted clients with insolvency and debt restructuring matters. Her experience spans a variety of industry sectors including agriculture, manufacturing, health care, food & hospitality, and retail businesses.

Vickie has been repeatedly recognized by the Canadian Legal Lexpert® Directory as a leading practitioner in both the areas of Banking and Financial Institutions and Asset Based Lending. She has also been noted in Legal 500 Canada as a key practitioner and “proactive problem solver”. Vickie has also been the recipient, on a number of occasions, of the Lawyer Monthly Magazine, Women in Law Award.

Vickie has been engaged in the legal profession and matters that benefit the larger community. She has spoken at various industry conferences as well as client training seminars on lending, personal property, cash management and other practise-area related topics. Vickie is also a member of Bay Street Fore a Cause, a not for profit corporation comprised of Bay Street professionals with a desire to give back to their community by raising funds for child and youth-related charitable causes in the Greater Toronto Area.

Prior to joining Fogler, Rubinoff, Vickie was a partner and Chair of the Financial Services Group of another Bay Street firm.
