Stephen is an Associate in our Business Law and Financial Services Groups. His practice focuses on all aspects of banking and secured lending transactions, including acquisition financings, mezzanine financings, asset-based lending, and syndicated financings.

Stephen also provides advice on insolvency matters and has worked with a variety of stakeholders affected by or involved in formal and informal insolvency proceedings and financial restructurings, including secured and unsecured creditors, receivers and trustees, and debtors.

When not at the office, Stephen enjoys getting outdoors and can be found hiking, running along the waterfront with his dog, and playing a variety of organized team sports.
