Krystan recently completed her second year at the University of Ottawa's Faculty of Law.

Before attending law school, she earned an Honours Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and Italian Studies from the University of Toronto. Her interest in law was sparked in 2016 when she joined Fogler, Rubinoff LLP, where she spent several years working as a legal assistant in the firm's litigation department.

In her second year of law school, Krystan served on the Common Law Student Society English Committee, which focused on improving access to academic resources for students. Passionate about advocacy, negotiation, and dispute resolution, she competed in the Dentons Negotiation Competition during her first year and the BLG Negotiation Competition in her second year. In her spare time, she enjoys travelling, cooking, and spending time with her family
