Andrea recently completed her second year at Osgoode Hall Law School.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Michigan, where she graduated with distinction. Andrea's passion for advocacy and dedication to client service have guided her career and personal life. Before starting law school, she spent over a decade in sales leadership roles in the pharmaceutical and biotechnology industries. While pursuing her legal education, she also worked as an Adjudicator with Tribunals Ontario and served on various boards while leading community projects.

During her time at Osgoode, Andrea participated in the Lerner's Cup 1L Moot, served as Vice President of the Mature Students' Association, and volunteered at the Osgoode Mediation Clinic. In her free time, she enjoys skiing, travelling, boating, and neighbourhood walks with her dog, Woof, while also treasuring moments with her two amazing children.
