Anja maintains a general commercial litigation practice and has specific experience dealing with construction law matters.

Anja consistently strives to achieve timely and cost-effective solutions for her clients. She is a zealous advocate and has represented clients at various levels of court and numerous Boards. She also regularly participates in Alternative Dispute Resolution processes, including the adjudication of construction disputes, in order to ensure that her clients have exhausted every avenue prior to pursuing costly litigation.

Anja brings insurance defence expertise to her practice at the firm, gained from a prior role at a boutique downtown Toronto law firm where her practice focused on occupiers' liability, motor vehicle accidents, and subrogation. She regularly leverages this experience on her commercial litigation and construction files in order to provide efficient and well-rounded service to her clients.
